

Russ Gray

Russ has served the club as member at large for two terms. He has experience in nonprofit corporations both professionally and as a volunteer. He would like to help lead the club back to its former glory as one of the largest in the country.